

PRODUCERS

COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATION

Proudly owned by the farmers and ranchers of the Brazos Valley since 1943.

Fire Ant Control

As the weather continues to warm up, you may find yourself spending more time outdoors. Unfortunately, ants are also out and about, looking for the perfect location to expand their colony. Producers carries a variety of products to keep your lawns and pastures in tip top shape and to keep ants and other insects out. Say goodbye to ants.

Call the Producers Garden Center team today to discuss your treatment plan.

FREE Webinar: Impacts of Winter Storm Uri on Texas Fish & Wildlife

April 13th@ 12pm Central

It's been more than a month since Winter Storm Uri swept across Texas, but many are still feeling the aftershocks caused by this historic event, especially our wildlife. Come learn about the changes in flora and fauna after the storm (including a citizen science project hosted on iNaturalist) and whether or not we should be expecting similar events as the new normal. We have an excellent lineup of speakers this month from Texas Parks and Wildlife, the Office of the Texas State Climatologist, and Texas SeaGrant. This month's #TMNTuesday is a special 3-hour event that you don't want to miss! It is free and open to the public, and the recorded session will be available on this page or on our Facebook for those who can't make the live event. Download the printable schedule and press release here.

From The Ground Up

From The Ground Up educates our friends and neighbors in the Brazos Valley about agriculture and its impact on their everyday lives. Be sure to watch our weekly televised segment at approximately 6:15 am on Thursdays or during the Saturday 6 o'clock evening news on KBTX-TV 3, Bryan-College Station's CBS affiliate.

This weeks From The Ground Up segment covers the importance of the food supply chain and the efficiency of producers in the United States with Luis Ribera, director of the Center of North American Studies.
