

PRODUCERS

COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATION

Proudly owned by the farmers and ranchers of the Brazos Valley since 1943.

Winter Supplementation in Cattle

Supplement your cattle this winter with a Purina Accuration Hi-Fat block. The weather-resistant, protein block is formulated with a higher level of fat that is designed to provide additional energy to balance nutrient deficiencies in poor quality forages. The block is available in a tub or wrapped in cardboard. Call the Producers feed divisions direct line at 979-778-2864 for more information.

Blackland Income Growth Conference

The 59th annual Blackland Income Growth (BIG) conference will be held online for the first time in 59 years. The free event, held on January 5th, will include both morning and afternoon sessions with covering topics on horticulture, beef, forage & grain production and rural land management.
